MORE TO KNOW BEFORE YOU GO!

FOOD ALLERGIES

If your student has a severe food allergy that would require separate food or meals than what is offered at NorthBay Camp, please email CAMPS@parkvalleychurch.com.

MEDICATIONS

- ANY MEDICATION sent with your student to camp MUST BE CHECKED-IN at the nurse station on the day we leave for camp.
- You need a copy of the PVC Medication form completed prior to check-in. Medications must be in their original container inside a clearly marked Ziplock bag. Put the copy of the form in the Ziplock bag.
- If your student uses a pill organizer, include a written description and dosage of each medication.
- All medications will be stored in a locked container and administered by our camp nurse or leadership staff.

COMMUNICATIONS

Cell service is limited, in case of an emergency call:

NorthBay Camp Phone Line                      443-967-0500

PVC Staff Contact Numbers:

Kevven Kijak, PVC Student Ministries Pastor    703-994-7420

Will Lanman, PVC Middle School Pastor        605-695-0460

- Please keep in mind that camp internet service is limited. We will text our arrival and return trip departure via our texting service.

ACCOMMODATIONS

- Students will be staying in cabins at NorthBay Camp, 11 Horseshoe Point Ln, North East, MD 21901
- Cabins are air conditioned and gender specific.

ROOMMATE REQUESTS

- We try to accommodate all roommate requests; however, last minute adjustments may be necessary.
- Final cabin and leader assignments will be provided at check-in.
